Will you be willing to sign your new dog up for Obedience classes at your own expense?

Pets are an investment of your time and money. Can you afford to provide medical care, grooming, proper diet, shelter and exercise for you new pet?

Are you able and willing to make a long-term commitment to care for your pet for its entire life span, which could be 15 to 20 years?

What reason would prompt you to give your dog up?

If your present relationship was to change or there was a death in your family, with whom will the dog go?

I understand that a home visit is required prior to final placement. I understand that a home visit does not guarantee placement. I understand that the donation or contribution is a gift given freely and not a purchase price for a dog and is not refundable.

Which of the following reasons might prompt you to give up your dog? (check all that apply)

None of the above

If a problem with the dog's behavior arises would you be willing to seek help immediately from the rescue group and/or trainer we refer?  yes I would at my work with the dog trainer _____

---

If you work with one trainer and their training techniques are not effective, would you be willing to get a second opinion?
 yes

Would you agree to consult and pay for a trainer or behaviorist if any problem develops?
 Yes

I understand that Rescue is an all-volunteer group. I understand an donation of $__380 is necessary to help offset costs incurred to rescue and care for each dog. Because most animals cost us more than the minimal donation to care for, we welcome you to make a larger donation if you are able.
